EXHIBIT A

August 16, 2012

The Honorable Basil H. Lorch, III
United States Bankruptcy Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court
Southern District of Indiana
121 W. Spring Street, Room 110
New Albany, IN 47150

RE: Eastern Livestock Co., LLC

Dear Judge Lorch:

I write today supporting the motions to remove the Trustee from the Eastern Livestock Company, LLC bankruptcy case. The National Cattlemen's Beef Association (NCBA) is a party of interest in this matter and has been monitoring these proceedings for months.

Please recall that NCBA is a national trade association representing over 147,000 cattle producers located throughout the United States via our direct membership and state affiliates. Many of the creditors of these proceedings are members of NCBA.

NCBA supports the motion to remove the Trustee because his work has been severely compromised to a level that distracts from the progress of the case, depletes the assets of the estate, and erodes the integrity of these proceedings in the eyes of the public. NCBA suggests that all parties would be best served by the immediate appointment of a creditors committee and assignment of matters to mediation for resolution.

The beef industry in the United States is a vital part of the country's economy. These proceedings will significantly impact future transactions and the ability of many parties within the industry to remain in business. We respectfully request the court to move the parties towards mediation to avoid extended litigation.

We ask that these matters be resolved as quickly as possible without compromising the integrity of the system.

Sincerely,

J.D. Alexander
President
